

December 2017

Fine Motor Gross Motor Literacy/Lang. Math Science/Sensory Social/Emotional Social Studies Creative Arts

Using pincer grip to pick up pipe cleaners and drop into bottles	Bouncing while standing on mattress	Singing the Itsy Bitsy Spider	Noticing different sized holes on the ball drop	Exploring play dough with our hands	Making play dough together	Learning new words to communicate	Making music with instruments
Roll a ball back and forth with teacher	Using balance while walking independently	Reading what a Wonderful World	Adding blocks to the basket	Smelling the peppermint play dough	Trying new foods at snack time	Visiting the toddler classroom	Manipulating play dough
Squeezing play dough with our hands	Pulling up on a toy bin	Reading Snowman at Night	Measuring ingredients for play dough	Mixing colors while finger painting	Learning to verbalize words when wanting something	Meeting new teachers and friends in the toddler classroom	Using our hands while painting
Grasping and dropping balls in ball drop	Getting into the crawling position	Learning and practicing the "More" and "Please" sign	Stacking blocks	Looking at seasonal photographs	Showing love to stuffed animals	Mixing paint colors together	Dancing to the beat of the music
Turning pgs. of book	Clapping with excitement while singing with Jamie	Talking about the foods we are eating at meal times	Listening to Papa Joe tell stories	Watching the rainbows that the prism makes	Identifying ourselves when looking in a mirror	Dancing to the beat of the music	Listening to stories being told
	Pushing up into the crawling position		Feeling the different weights of the balls while throwing	Watching the change in weather out the window		Looking out the window to see change in season	Build towers with blocks
						Working together to make play dough	